PAINT YOUR PORCH

Six members in attendance today. Missed and missing Doreen, Robert, Jeanne, Linda and Sal.

There were many Happy and Sad dollars today, including Doreen with car problems, Cathy is getting ready to go on a cruise. Guy had a cell phone and funeral story. Frieda had mixed dollars for Dennis' pending retirement and Debbie had sad dollars for her car accident, but was happy that no one was hurt.

Jeff was happy that Cathy read the bulletin. It goes to show that Librarians will read anything.

ROTARY'S ONWARD MARCH

1906

New Rotary Club of Chicago had steady growth in membership. Intimate first-name acquaintance promoted fellowship.

Rotary "wagon wheel" emblem adopted, the first of many varieties of "wheel emblems" to be used by different clubs, until 1912, when a geared wheel was adopted, this to be followed by authorization of an official emblem (1924), a wheel of six spokes, 24 cogs, and a "keyway."

Militant agitation evidenced for woman's suffrage in England, United States and other countries.

Sir Frederick G. Hopkins, English biochemist, discovered vitamins.

Quote of the Day

"I not only use all the brains I have, but all I can borrow."

A blonde, wanting to earn some extra money, decided to hire herself out as a "handywoman" and started canvassing a nearby well-to-do neighborhood.

She went to the front door of the first house, and asked the owner if he had any odd jobs for her to do.

Well, I guess I would use somebody to paint my porch," he said, "How much will you charge me?"

The blonde quickly responded, "How about $50?"

The man agreed and told her that the paint and everything she would need was in the garage.

The man's wife, hearing the conversation, said to her husband, "Does she realize that our porch goes all the way around the house?"

He responded, "That's a bit cynical, isn't it?"

The wife replied, "You're right. I guess I'm starting to believe all those 'dumb blonde' jokes we've been getting by e-mail lately."

A short time later, the blonde came to the door to collect her money.

"You're finished already?" the husband asked.

"Yes," the blonde replied, "and I had paint leftover, so I gave it two coats."

Impressed, the man reached into his pocket for the $50 and handed it to her.

"And by the way," the blonde added, "it's not a Porch, it's a Lexus.

911

Dispatcher: 9-1-1 What is the nature of your emergency?

Caller: I'm trying to reach nine eleven but my phone doesn't have an eleven on it.

Dispatcher: This is nine eleven.

Caller: I thought you just said it was nine-one-one.

Dispatcher: Yes, ma'am nine-one-one and nine-eleven are the same thing.

Caller: Honey, I may be old, but I'm not stupid.

Dispatcher: 9-1-1 What is your emergency?

Caller: I heard what sounded like gunshots coming from the brown house on the corner.

Dispatcher: Do you have an address?

Caller: No, I have on a blouse and slacks, why?
